

Virginia Credit Unions: The Real Story

Tax-paying Virginia banks compete head to head with tax-exempt credit unions. Although they portray themselves as mom and pop shops for people of modest means, today credit unions are a $2.2 trillion industry, with many indistinguishable from banks. The BIG difference-they don't pay federal income taxes, depriving the U.S. Treasury of nearly $3.1 billion every year.

taxes, depriving the 0.5. Treasury of hearly $5.1 billion every year.
Who Pays the Taxes?
Taxes Paid in 2022   VA Credit Unions VA Banks*   $0 $2,419,230,000   *Includes all applicable federal, state and local, and foreign income taxes   Indistinguishable from Banks	Navy Federal Credit Union would have paid $400 million in taxes during 2022, had it paid its fair share. Larger Than All But Two Virginia Banks
$470M Freedom First Federal Credit Union used its tax advantage to aggressively expand its business lending at an annual rate of 48% since 2012.	Navy Federal Credit Union, with $156.6 billion in assets , is the largest credit union in Virginia, larger all but two Virginia-headquartered banks.
$95M $9M 2012 2014 2016 2018 2020 2022	Virginia Credit Unions Leverage Their Tax Exemption to Grow Deposits Virginia credit unions grew deposits at an annualized rate of 10.8% since 2012.
Common Membership Bond? Anyone can join Pentagon Federal Credit Union, with over $28 billion in deposits, by making a donation to one of two associations.	$72.5 Billion

